Driver Feature – Dave Coxsen

Dave Coxsen grew up in Tulsa Oklahoma and always knew that he wanted to be a truck driver like his dad and uncles. After graduating from high school, he worked in grocery stores and convenience stores until he was old enough to drive truck. Dave has been driving truck for 30 years, and Kuperus has been lucky enough to have him with us for the last 14 years. Dave has the distinction of being one of our safest drivers. In his career so far he has driven close to three million miles safely.

Dave met his wife at age 19, and this Christmas Eve he and his wife will celebrate 27 years of marriage. Dave and his wife have 7 children and 18 grandchildren ranging in age from 24 to newborn. Dave's newest grandchild was born this month. When you see him, ask to see a picture. Dave and his wife enjoy bowling when they have the time, but spend most of their time with family. Dave is a good grandpa and enjoys playing "cars and trains" when his grandson asks him. Who knows, maybe some day his grandson will become a truck driver and carry on the family tradition. We are glad that Dave has been a part of the Kuperus team since 2004.

Billing Basic Reminders from Beth and Sharon

1. They always need a copy of the BOL (except on SAS loads).
2. The BOL always needs receiver's signature. (Please write "dropped" on drop loads.)
3. Always check paperwork for shipper / receiver accuracy.
4. Always scan paperwork after delivery.
5. Always turn in completed paperwork every time you pass through the yard.

Turning in accurate paperwork in a timely manner makes a significant contribution to the success of Kuperus Trucking. Thank you for your help with this.

“A driver’s night before Christmas” by Tina Pastore

The days before Christmas and all down the road, the drivers’ trucks were a-rollin’ to deliver their loads. The drivers hauled everything from freight, food , to toys, to deliver to homes for good girls and boys. The cellphones did crackle and voices filled the air, with warm season’s greetings and warnings to bear. All across the land, the people did sleep, while drivers keep rollin’ through ice, snow and sleet They’re pushing for delivery, food, freight and toys must arrive. They’re the backbone of our country, necessary to survive. When the trailer is empty, they’ll get on the phone, and check with their dispatch before heading for home.

The family will greet them with hugs and with smiles, you know it’s for them that they roll all those miles. Remember the children, remember the wife, of the driver who sacrificed, every day risked his life. Let’s stop while we’re at it to offer a prayer: That the drivers all made it safely, that they all got there. We can all be proud of this job that we do. These drivers and shippers depend on me and on you, So, friends, have a safe one as they roll out of sight, Merry Christmas to all and to all a goodnight!
